ABOUT THE COVER—What is more filled with bright promises than the flowers which God has created? They bring us happiness and encouragement as we wend our way amid life's burdens and crises. The California Poppy is an exquisite flower which only grows in California and nearby Western States. Although quite fragile, it is awesome in its beauty. God can do the same with our lives as we yield them to Him.

Just now, dedicate yourself to Him anew, and let Him fill your life with meaning, purpose, and a sense of worth. No one else can bring you the happiness and peace you are seeking. Open His Inspired Word, and experience that healing, ennobling power for yourself. Humble, heartfelt obedience to His commands, by faith in Jesus Christ His Son, will enrich your life as you seek to help and bless those around you, and fulfill the purpose for which you were created.

INTRODUCTION

Over thirty years ago, the compiler of this book found a small compilation of Bible promises in a bookstore. Since then, he has searched for still more promises in the Holy Scriptures.

There is something very special about Bible promises. They are able to provide a person with such comfort, encouragement, and a sense of God's presence. Wherever you may be, you can turn to a Bible promise and find help for the day's need.

For many years, the compiler of this little book wanted to produce a yearful of Bible promises with a sizeable number of promises for every day in the calendar year. On January in the late 1970s, he gathered promises for several months, and shared copies of the typed collection with friends. He found they were eager for them, and some immediately set to work reading each day's passages and memorizing at least one verse a day.

How very fine, he thought, it would be to bring together a 366-day collection of Bible promises! Then he wondered whether it would be possible to organize each day's assortment under separate topical headings. Eventually, the task was completed—and you have the result in this present volume. It is probably one of the largest collections of Bible promises available, yet arranged in a manner that can be practically used each day throughout the year.

A decision had to be made whether to set this book in very small print or in a larger typeface. Larger print was finally selected for two reasons: (1) Most of us would prefer the easier-to-read print, and some of us who are older could not use a small-print edition at all. (2) Since the book would have more than 360 pages, even a small, pocket-sized edition would be too large for many pockets.

HOW TO USE THIS PROMISE BOOK

Several Bible promises are on each of the 366 days in this book. There are enough on each page to enable you to fill your mind with promises in the morning, at noon, and again in the evening.

Please consider memorizing at least one promise on each page each day. Mark the one you have selected, and read and recite it several times that day. Each day take time to review and recite the marked verses of the previous ten days. Once each week, review all the verses for the previous month. Store up your mind with this precious treasure. If you have trouble keeping it all in mind, only memorize the book and chapter number reference, and not the number of the verse.

Here are several additional suggestions which will help you make better use of this book of Bible promises:

1 – God's promises are for those who love Him. The Creator loves everyone in this world; that is why He sent His Son to die for them. But only those who submit themselves to His keeping can claim the promised blessings. No one is shut out from the special blessings offered by these promises, except by his own decision. All who want to come to God can do so. But only those who do come can make the promises their own.

2 – God's promises are for those who obey Him. Not only must we surrender our lives to our Maker, we must also be willing to do what He tells us in His Word. The Bible explains the pathway to heaven. Through the enabling grace of Jesus Christ, as we traverse that pathway, we must do what God in the Bible tells us to do. Apart from Christ we are helpless. But, in His empowering strength, we can do all that He asks of us in His Scriptures. Obedience—apart from Christ—is legalism; obedience—in Christ—is godly living.

3 – God's promises are for those who trust Him. We must not only read the promises, we must believe them. Without faith it is impossible to receive the promised blessings. Remember the plea of the father who came to Christ for help: "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief!" (Mark 9:24). Let that prayer be yours as, in His strength, you seek to increase your hold on the promises.

4 – God's promises are for those who will use them. Let not the promises be only for yourself. Yes, you need them too! But you need to also share them with others. Quote Bible promises to your loved ones, friends, and business associates. Tell them how much those promises are helping you. Show them how to claim promises for themselves. This Introduction will give you some of that information.

5 – God's promises are for those who make them their own. Be not as those who read and walk away. Take each promise to heart. Pray over each one; indeed, you may need to cry over some of them! Plead with God to fulfill each one in your life. Ask Him to show you in the Bible the errors, the neglects, and the sins that need to be put away. Let nothing come between you and your precious Father in heaven. It is not enough to ask for enabling grace; we must cooperate with Heaven in living clean, honest lives. We must sacrifice our frivolous entertainments and spend more time in prayer to God, and the study of His Scriptures. It is not enough to wait until we reach heaven to spend time with God; we must begin doing it now.

6 – God's promises are for those who claim them. In doing this, follow the ABCs of prayer: Ask, believe, and claim. Ask God for help to do His will; believe that He will help you do it; and, in faith, claim the promised blessing. All His commands are enablings; all His requests are promises. And all are blessings. Our heavenly Father pours out blessings upon us every day. But there are still more to be found in the Bible. Indeed, there are many verses in the Bible which are blessings in disguise. You will there find far more promised blessings than are contained within the pages of the book you now have in hand. Read the Bible and make it your own. Faith, prayer, and cooperation with the Godhead bring the victory. And in this present, evil world—we surely need victories!

7 - God's promises are for those who appreciate them. It is one thing to appreciate the promises enough to read them in the first place, and to claim them when you are in the midst of serious problems. It is quite another to thank God for them after the blessing has been received and when the troubles seem to be gone. Ten lepers were healed, but only one returned to thank Christ afterward. (Luke 17). Let us not be as the nine. The promises are not to be reserved alone for the dark cave. Claim them in the sunshine also. Let the Word of God abide in you richly throughout your waking hours.

There is a glimpse of heaven to be found within the pages of this book. That is because God guided in the writing of those words. The messages they contain are direct from Him. Touch and live; taste and see that the Lord is good. Walk into His Word. Fill your heart, and mind, and life with the blessings that come from letting Him help you do His will. Living with God is a happy life. May it be yours to the fullest!

For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded Is Me and peace. —Romans 8:6

Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon In all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall He not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? Or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. —Matthew 6:25-34 being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. —Philippians 2:5-8

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the Joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. ### WHEN YOU HAVE MARITAL PROBLEMS-1

Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and He is the saviour of the body.

Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that He might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies.

He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband. —Ephesians 5:21-33

Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. — Genesis 2:24

PROMISES OF CHRIST'S RETURN

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. —1 Corinthians 15:51-57

Let not your heart be troubled: ye, believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. —John 14:1-4

For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. . . Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. —Matthew 24:27, 29-31

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ Is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that It should come; and even now already is it in the world. In labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews live times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I have been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and painfulness, to watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. —2

WHEN YOU FEEL REBELLIOUS-1

Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by Him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. —1 Peter 2:13-15

Obeys them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. –Hebrews 13:17

And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, He hath also rejected thee from being king. — 1 Samuel 15:22-23

Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance. —1 Peter 1:13-14

AUGUST 8 221

WHEN YOU FEEL REBELLIOUS-2

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. — James 4:7

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, In this will I be confident. One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in His temple. For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion: in the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me; He shall set me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in His tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea. I will sing praises unto the LORD. Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

When Thou saidst, Seek ye My face; my heart said unto Thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek. Hide not Thy face far from me; put not Thy servant away in anger: Thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up. Teach me Thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living. Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD. —Psalm 27:1-14

Though I walk In the midst of trouble, Thou wilt revive me: Thou shalt stretch forth Thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and Thy right hand shall save me. —Psalm 138:7

Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with there according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered. —1 Peter 3:1-7

Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. —Joshua 24:15
